LOOKING BEYOND OURSELVES

The message found in today's readings is an oft-told story. Citizen Kane, Daddy Warbucks, and King Midas are only a few of the familiar fictional characters who thought enormous wealth could buy happiness and fulfillment. Daddy Warbucks admitted stepping on a few people in his climb to the top. Kane tried to buy the printed word and stardom for his young wife, while King Midas conjured immense wealth and tragedy by his very touch.

We learn clearly in today's readings that none of this is really possible. True happiness comes from caring for someone other than ourselves. It comes from the pursuit of the virtues Paul described to Timothy: faith, love, gentleness, godliness, righteousness, and endurance. The Gospel reminds us that we dare not ignore the needs of others, acting as though we don't notice their suffering. God's call to us is much too clear to disregard for even one more day. Honor and power to the King of Kings

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

We've been thinking about names lately, and there is hardly any tradition older than changing one's name when accepting a new vocation in life. In the time of Jesus, people would normally wait until the eighth day after birth for the naming of a child, partly because of the fragility of infant life, when the eighth day would mark the end of a survival crisis, and also because the elders would look for some clues as to the child's identity. In Jewish life then as now, it was not the custom to name a child after a living parent; notice there are no "juniors" in the genealogy of Jesus. Remember also how the relatives complained to Zachary and Elizabeth that no one in their family was ever named John. Then there are the changed names, Abram became Abraham, Sarai became Sarah, Saul became Paul, Simon became Peter. This spills over into Western culture in many ways, such as British royalty taking new names at coronation. It's anybody's guess, for example, whether the Prince of Wales intends to be King Charles II, or become Henry, or Edward, or George if he wishes.

Members of religious orders have until recent years swapped baptismal names for new ones, and the latest pope made a switch as well. Secular life has many parallels, and movie stars like Cary Grant, Judy Garland, and John Wayne might not have shone so brightly as Archie Leach, Frances Gumm, and Marion Morrison. There are some compelling reasons in our tradition for taking a new name when undertaking a new mission, yet also a clear preference for choosing the right baptismal name from the start! —Rev. James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Woe to the complacent. Their wanton revelry shall be done away with (Amos 6:1a, 4-7).

Psalms — Praise the Lord, my soul! (Psalm 146).

Second Reading — Compete well for the faith. Keep the commandment until the appearance of the Lord Jesus (1 Timothy 6:11-16).

Gospel — The parable of Lazarus and the rich man (Luke 16:19-31).

St. Mary Cemetery - All flowers and flags will be removed by cemetery personnel on October 1st. If arrangements, flowers or flags are wanted, the owners must remove them prior to September 30th.

Today is the collection for the Called By Name appeal and the Seminarian and Clergy Formation Collection. Again, this week's Gospel cautions us to lift our thoughts and desires above the material world and try to discern how God is calling us to live. Let us generously support the needs of our seminarians and clergy through this collection and help those in our families and parishes who might be candidates for the priesthood, diaconate or religious life. If you forgot your envelope, please bring it to Mass next weekend.

Baby Bottle Campaign - The Knights of Columbus will have Life Choices present their Baby Bottle Campaign the weekend of October 15th & 16th. All details will be in next weekend's bulletin.

On October 8th & 9th, representatives from the Bethlehem Christian Families (a nonprofit organization through Land of Peace) will be with us speaking about the Christian situation in the Holy Land and selling Crucifixes, religious art work, and rosaries - all made of olive wood which is native to Israel and Bethlehem. Since tourism has greatly depleted, Christian families in the holy land, who depend on tourists, have been greatly affected. The goal of this mission is to build a Charitable Hospital in Bethlehem and help the poor and needy families in Bethlehem and Jerusalem. Sale of these goods will help them very much and also give you the opportunity to have "something" authentic from the holy land. Please browse and buy some articles. It is for a good cause and also a help to your personal devotion. For more information, please visit: www.landofpeace.org and <http://www.bcfmission.com/>

Join with thousands of pro-lifers throughout the USA and Canada to pray for the end of abortion on Sunday, October 2nd, 2:00 to 3:00 P.M. Life Chain is a peaceful and prayerful witness of pro-life individuals standing for 60 minutes praying for our nation and for the end of abortion. It is a visual statement of solidarity by the Christian community that abortion kills children and that the church supports the sanctity of human life from the moment of conception until natural death. Take the family. Water, lawn chairs, umbrellas, strollers are welcome. All will assemble in Our Lady of Most Blessed Sacrament's church parking lot in Natrona Heights. Youth groups, church organizations, Knights of Columbus, all Christians please prayerfully consider joining in for one hour of prayer to ask Almighty God for His intervention to unite His Church against abortion's horrors. We, as Christians, have to speak for the unborn. If you have any questions, please call Bob at 724-759-0149 or 724-265-4427.

Christian Mothers - All members and their families are asked to gather together in front of the Blessed Mother (please arrive at 8:00 A.M.) to recite the rosary and to attend morning Mass on Sunday, October 2nd. The monthly meeting will be held on Monday, October 3rd, at 7:00 P.M. Members are asked to arrive at 6:30 P.M.

The annual Pro-Life Brunch will be held Saturday, October 1st, from 10:30 A.M. to 1:00 P.M. at the Bishop Connare Center, Greensburg. Keynote speaker Father Paul Schenck will address the theme "All Life Matters." Father Schenck — an Episcopalian pastor for twenty years before coming into full Communion with the Catholic Church in 2004 — is married and the father of nine children. He was ordained a priest in 2010 for the Diocese of Harrisburg where he serves as director of Respect Life Activities and Continuing Education for Clergy. Tickets are $9.00 for students, $18.00 for adults. If you would like additional information, please contact Millie Krinock at 724-537-2064 or Raissa Federline at: rsvpf@hotmail.com. The deadline to register is Monday, September 26th.

A Mass for the Feast of Guardian Angels will be celebrated on Monday, Oct. 3rd, at 7:00 P.M. at Guardian Angel Church, Nicholson Run. This will be celebrated the day after the feast because it falls on Sunday. Everyone is invited to attend this mass.

Bishop Edward C. Malesic will be the celebrant and homilist for the annual White Mass for health care workers October 2nd at 11:30 A.M., at Blessed Sacrament Cathedral. All health care personnel are encouraged to attend.

From the acclaimed director of The Triumph comes a powerful new film that chronicles the incredible journey of seven strangers who embark across the globe to investigate one of the greatest mysteries of the modern era. Apparition Hill is an emotionally charged "cinematic pilgrimage" to the little-known village of Medjugorje nestled along the Croatian-Bosnia-Herzegovina borders. The feature-length documentary is being shown in select theaters. Discover the shared miracle as two atheists, a skeptic, two terminally ill patients, a widower, and a recovering addict learn about life ... and what comes after. Join Jill Mazowiecki, St. Vincent Basilica Parish parishioner and cast member, for two showings of the film on Sunday, October 2nd, at Seton Hill Performing Art Center (Downtown Greensburg – 100 Harrison Avenue.) Show times: 1:15 P.M. and 5:15 P.M. Easy online ticketing available at: www.apparitionhill.tv/find-a-screening; email for tickets to: apparitionhillgreensburg@gmail.com; call Jill - 724-261-1657.
