From the Pastor's Desk

As we enjoy the good weather, especially during the summer, we look for outdoor activities that we can do like gardening, beautifying our yard and engaging in sports.

Well, our parish can help you with your search. We are looking for volunteers who can help us maintain the plants within our parish grounds and our prayer garden so they will look beautiful and well-kept. You can call the Administrative Office at 724-295-2281 if you are interested in helping out.

For those who would like to maintain a healthy mind and body, we will be starting up the "Biking for God" on June 15th, (weather permitting) at 6:30 P.M. We will meet at the Laneville Bike Trail. Those interested can come and bring your bike. We will be able to enjoy biking together. For those who cannot bike, please consider joining the walkers and afterwards, we will gather again for a short sharing.

On the other hand, since Pope Francis has proclaimed the Extraordinary Jubilee Year of Mercy from December 8th, 2015 to November 20th, 2016, our Evangelization Ministry came up with a series of Divine Mercy which we can read from our weekly bulletin. This series began last week and will run for twelve weeks. It focuses on the Divine Mercy. This was actually presented by Mark and Melissa Kristine last February 27th in our Fellowship Hall, but because not too many were able to attend, we thought it would be a great idea to share this with everyone.

We hope this will bring us to appreciate and understand what the Jubilee Year of Mercy is all about and be able to live out what Jesus, the Divine Mercy, wants us to have, making others feel that there are still people willing to show their love and care without expecting anything in return.

Let God be the one to reward us for our acts of mercy and kindness that we have shared with others.

Learning about Divine Mercy
Week 2

Divine Mercy

"In the beginning..."(Genesis 1:1) we read about God's glorious creation and man's inglorious sin, in that the serpent tempts, Adam fails and Eve succumbs, then both of them are fearful, causing them to run and hide. The Old Testament is a record of a long and arduous journey where God continually taught the Israelites about who He was.... not someone to run from out of fear, but run to with contrite hearts to receive his mercy. He was the bridegroom untiringly chasing his bride.

"For gracious and merciful is he, slow to anger, rich in kindness, and relenting in punishment." Joel 2:13b

In the New Testament, God's revelation of his love and mercy become "enfleshed" in Jesus Christ. "When the fullness of time had come, God sent forth his Son... to redeem those who were under the law, so that we might receive adoption as sons." Galatians 4:4-5 He no longer wants to show them mercy and love, but BECOME mercy and love. God is infinitely merciful; He burns with love for us and deserves all of our trust. Remember, God can't force us to love and trust... this requires our free will.

"No soul that has called upon my mercy has been disappointed." (from the Dairy of St. Faustina)

The USCCB-organized event opens on the vigil of the Feasts of St. John Fisher and St. Thomas More, two martyrs for religious freedom, and concludes July 4th, Independence Day. The fortnight focuses on the many threats to religious liberty in our country, as well religious freedom concerns in other areas, such as immigration, adoption and humanitarian services. We are encouraged to urge members of Congress to represent us on these issues, as well as to pray fervently that the rights of all believers will be respected in our country.
