From the Pastor's Desk

Vacation is over! Back to parish life and ministry. Still have jet lag as I travelled back from the Philippines for more than twenty-four hours in the air. It may take a few days to get back to my normal body clock, but I would like to thank everyone for making the parish run smoothly with no worries—the staff, the priests who covered for me, the extra ordinary ministers of holy communion who presided the communion service for the parish in my absence. Thank you all!

If there is one thing I learned during the month I was away, it is the fact that vacations are always good and relaxing, especially if it is spent with your family and friends. It is priceless, especially the joy and fun you bring to them. But as the vacation comes to an end, you wish that it can be extended for you realize that the days went by so fast and you want to still spend time with your family and friends. But as somebody said, you cannot always have everything you want. In every beginning, there will always be an end, but what is important is the story you create. A story that can be reminisced and remembered because of the goodness and joy you have shared with others, especially with your family and loved ones.

I remember when I treated my mom by taking her to Hong Kong and Macau for five days after my sister's wedding. Without even asking how she felt travelling for the first time abroad, her eyes exuded with joy and excitement. Even though she was limping while walking because of her arthritis and hip problem, that did not seem to bother her. All I remember was seeing a happy face, especially when she asked for pictures to places we had visited. Upon going back home, she was excited to share her experiences with her grandchildren and friends.

Truly the memories we create depends on how we spend our time. It doesn't matter whether we are rich or poor, young or old, or we live a longer or shorter life. What is important is if we are able to do good and make others happy, even by our own simple ways.

Mother Teresa of Calcutta, who was recently canonized as a saint said, "Not all of us can do great things. But we can do small things with great love. Spread love everywhere you go and let no one ever come to you without leaving happier."
