

Christian Mothers Meeting Minutes
November 5, 2018

Diane Grant started the meeting with prayer. The treasurer reported a balance of $7,088.93 (CM $2,986.48 & MM $4,102.45). Bill Girardi may buy a new stove using mercy meals money.

OLD BUSINESS

- The card party did well with a profit of $584.00. Thank you to all who helped and sent food.
- The Christmas tree with the baskets for the raffle is up in church and ticket sales have begun. Thank you to those who put the baskets together, made them look festive, and all those who helped get them on and around the tree.
- Joanne Colpo will be heading the food sale for the Christmas celebration in Freeport on Dec. 1st. She will call or email for help. If you are interested in helping please call Joanne.
- Kim Holbein will again buy the apples for Thanksgiving
- Donut Sunday will be November 11

NEW BUSINESS

- Nominations for President is Diane Grant, Vice President is Laurie Kolish. Motion will be made in December
- Patty Hughes made a motion to give $150 in gift cards for the Mardi Gras. Jean Miller seconded.
- Sharon Maholic and Jean Miller will plan our Holiday party on January 7th. More details in December.
- There was a discussion on who we can help for the holidays. Sharon suggested helping the food bank, Karen Nigra seconded. All will be decided at the December meeting.
- Judy Bergstrom reported about the prayer garden. The landscaping is done and the sign should be here soon. The sales for the stones have gone well.
- Anyone interested in going to St. Emma's on December 1st, please contact Just Bergstrom.

December 2nd Christian Mothers Mass 8:30 Rosary 8:00
December 3rd Christian Mothers Meeting 7:00 Rosary 6:30
December 9 Donut Sundry

Respectfully Submitted,

Joanne Colpo